Sir,

The National Tribal Research Institute (NTRI), New Delhi, is organising a two-day National Conference on the theme ‘Symposium on Tribal Freedom Fighters Resilience, Struggle, and Legacy’ tentatively from 26 March to 27 March 2024.

2. The Symposium on Tribal Freedom Fighters is a crucial endeavour to bring forth the resilience, struggles, and enduring legacy of tribal communities. This background paper, spanning historical narratives, contemporary challenges, and cultural preservation, provides a comprehensive foundation for the symposium's objectives. By exploring untold stories, acknowledging present-day challenges, and fostering academic contributions, the symposium aims to create a space where the narratives of tribal freedom fighters can be celebrated, understood, and preserved for future generations. Through this collective effort, the symposium contributes to a more inclusive, informed, and appreciative global discourse on tribal heritage and activism.
