

Editorial

The year 2021, witnessed several ups and downs and in-betweens in all sectors of India. However, one interesting aspect of 2021 had been that the Government and its reforms remained in the spotlight all through the year.

Governance has been the focus of this edition.

In this edition we have one article on Governance in the lap of Himalayas and another casestudy on District Good Governance Index Framework - J&K which are on the similar lines. There is another engaging piece on the same theme which talks about the Efficient and Effective Administration - Key element of Good Governance.

The edition covers an article on Mission Karmayogi - Building the shared future for new India that sheds a light on the transformational reforms in Indian bureaucracy. On the other hand, an article on premature retirement affecting permanent government has been explained. In the spotlight section, the writeup elucidate on Civil Military Relationship in India. The edition ends with an intriguing casestudy.

Hope this makes an interesting read. May the coming year bring you lots of happiness and prosperity. ■

– Surendra Nath Tripathi